information

an Open Access Journal by MDPI

Scopus

Conference proceedings will be published afterwards. Papers published in Proceedings may not be published in other publications (including electronic ones). The Proceedings will be indexed in the RSCI.

The Organizing Committee will select some papers for journal publication with citation indexing in Scopus or Web of Science systems. In that case the author(s) should present journal version of their research that must have the original text and should pass the plagiarism test with respect of the paper published in Proceedings. The authors of selected articles can decide which version(s) of the paper will be published. For example, they can choose just Proceedings or just journal publication, or both. However, if two publications selected, authors should take care about anti-plagiarism requirements.

REVIEWING

ACDT-2021 will implement a single-blind review process.

To be eligible for publication either in the conference proceedings or in journal, the authors must present their work in the conference and fix all reviewer's notes.

In case of journal, there will be additional review according to the journal's rules. The Organizing Committee is in cooperation with the MDPI publishing house for the journal publications.
